

THE EPISCOPAL CHURCH OF THE ADVENT

JOB DESCRIPTION

Job Title: Co-Director of Youth Ministry (Female)
FLSA Status: Exempt
Work Schedule: Full-Time

Position Summary: The goal of this position is to work effectively in partnership with the Co-Director of Youth Ministry (male) in order to show Christ's light by effectively performing ministry with middle and high school members of the Episcopal Church of the Advent ("Advent") for the purpose of increasing the knowledge and love of the Lord while strengthening involvement and building energy and enthusiasm. Develop, direct, and coordinate a comprehensive ministry to Advent middle school youth and their families.

Reporting Relationships: Employee reports directly to the Rector.

Key Relationships:

- Internal: Youth Parishioners (girls and middle school-aged members, in particular), Parents of Youth, Co-Director of Youth Ministry, Director of Christian Formation, Clergy, Parish Administrator, Director of Communications, Church Staff
- External: Local public and private schools, The Episcopal Diocese of Upper South Carolina (EDUSC) Youth Ministry staff and programs, Bishop Gravatt Camp and Conference Center, Annual Convention), Episcopal churches in the Piedmont Convocation (in particular, Church of the Epiphany, St. Christopher's, St. Matthew's), The Episcopal Church USA, Girl Scouts (Troop 1664)

Essential Job Functions and Primary Responsibilities:

- Work with the other Co-Director of Youth Ministry to oversee and be responsible for the middle and high school youth ministry program in the areas of formation and education, spiritual development, outreach projects, fellowship, worship, and affirmation of youth.
- Foster a safe, nurturing environment in which students can explore their faith.
- Train, counsel, and encourage youth group members, their families, lay leaders, and volunteers to take an active role in the life of the parish.
- In concert with the Co-Director of Youth Ministry, develop and implement a variety of effective and creative programs designed to reach students at their level of spiritual growth.
- Coordinate with Clergy, Director of Christian Formation, Co-Director of Youth Ministry, and Youth Commission, to select and review curriculum materials and educational tools to ensure a well-rounded program of teaching, music, and recreation for the middle and high school students.

- Teach and/or lead engaging Sunday morning classes and mid-week Bible studies, utilizing adult volunteers to support this effort (e.g. Thursday morning Chick-fil-A Middle School Prayer Breakfast).
- Develop, coordinate, plan, and co-lead Youth Confirmation process, including classes and retreats.
- Encourage youth participation in EDUSC sponsored youth activities.
- Recruit, train, and equip youth and adults for leadership through personal example and teaching and by providing opportunities within the program for utilization of their talents.
- Assist in providing and sustaining an environment that will empower parents and other adult members to enthusiastically aid in implementing youth ministry.
- In cooperation with the Co-Director of Youth Ministry, plan and coordinate all Youth Ministry activities such as camps, conferences, retreats, and mission trips. Ensure that volunteers are available to accompany the youth on these trips.
- Coordinate youth activities with the Advent's program and facilities calendar.
- Plan and coordinate youth programs for Youth Sundays and special services as designated by the Rector. Communicate program plans with parents, youth, staff, and congregation through various methods of communication.
- Create policies and procedures that assure safety and supervision for all youth at all times and that are consistent with Church guidelines and Safeguarding Our Children training.
- Attend worship services regularly on Sundays and other times as requested by the Rector.
- Attend weekly Advent staff meetings and other meetings as requested by the Rector.

Competencies:

To perform the job successfully, the Co-Director of Youth Ministry should possess the following knowledge, skills, abilities, and behaviors:
