The Diocesan Executive Council

- Embraces the diocesan vision of Making, Equipping, and Sending Mature Disciples of Christ
- Has church or community experiences relevant to diocesan initiatives
- Strives for a balance of membership, particularly in geographic and church-size representation
- Seeks to expand leadership opportunities for diocesan-wide ministry as extensively as possible, therefore, the candidacy of spouses and immediate family members of clergy, and immediate family members of present Council members, is discouraged
- Applicants will submit answers to the following questions:
 1. Provide specific leadership roles you currently hold and describe important learnings from these experiences
 2. List specific skills that you will bring to Diocesan Executive Council
 3. As a communicant in The Episcopal Diocese of Upper South Carolina, which diocesan initiatives do you have passion for and why?

Required Attendance:

1. DEC Orientation and Planning weekend – Friday, December 9, – Saturday, December 10, 2022, Location Gravatt Camp and Conference Center, Aiken, SC.

DEC meetings – Currently meeting quarterly on Saturdays in March, June, September and December. The Executive Committee of DEC meets quarterly in February, May, September and November.

2. Members of Diocesan Executive Council serve as chairs or co-chairs of diocesan commissions, which also meet quarterly.

I understand that the DEC Orientation and Planning weekend is a required event and I hereby agree to be present for the orientation December 9-10, 2022.
